Official Rules and Guidelines

1. ELIGIBILITY

The Podunk Bluegrass Songwriting Contest (PBSC) is open to those whose primary source of income (50% or more) is not derived from songwriting or publishing. Income from performing gigs is not songwriting income. Writers who have won First place for three consecutive years in this competition are restricted from entering again for the next five years following their most recent win. Co-writers are subject to the same eligibility requirements as the named entrant.

2. CATEGORY

One category, Bluegrass, includes ballads, up-tempo, gospel and instruments (see appendix for genre guidelines) Judges reserve the right to determine whether entry meets the genre guidelines.

3. HOW TO ENTER

SUBMISSIONS BY MAIL:

Send the following with each entry:

- a) One completed entry form per song (photocopy acceptable).
- b) Entries may be submitted on CD's or electronically as an mp3 file.
- c) Release form (below) signed by all writers.
- d) Typed lyric sheet (Place writers name(s) at the bottom of the lyric sheet.
- e) Check or money order for $20.00 (U.S. currency) for each entry, payable to Podunk Bluegrass Music Festival. Payment may be made through the Podunk Bluegrass Website under tickets and then Songwriters Tickets (check link on website songwriters page) or through PayPal. Do not send cash.

All applicable U.S. copyright laws apply, and all rights to submitted material remain entirely with the copyright holder. PBSC acquires no rights to any works submitted. Podunk Bluegrass Music Festival is not responsible for late, lost, damaged, misdirected, insufficient postage, stolen, or misappropriated entries. Entry fees are non-refundable.

- 6. JUDGING

Entries will be judged by music industry professionals from the Podunk Bluegrass Festival music community. All entries will be judged on originality, lyrics, melody and the song's overall craft. Of major significance will be how closely the song meets the guidelines for bluegrass music. (See "Bluegrass Guidelines" elsewhere in this memo) Recording and performance quality are not considered. All decisions by judges are final and not subject to inquiry or appeal. Finalists will be determined and notified by the week of July 3. Only finalists will be personally notified. . The contest will not release judges' scores nor provide personal evaluations.

7. FINALISTS

Writers of the top three songs will be invited to perform on the Main Stage at Podunk in Hebron, CT. Transportation to and from the festival and any other expenses are the responsibility of the finalist. Each finalist will receive up to two special access passes to the festival. Any additional band members must purchase a ticket to enter the festival. Co-writers will be treated as one writer for credentials and prizes. In the event of a tie among top-ranked entries, the one with the earliest postmarked registration date will be chosen. The 1st Place winning song will be performed by all bands entered in the 2018 Podunk Band Competition as a required song for their own competition.

8. PRIZES

Prizes will be awarded to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. All prizes will be awarded to name on entry form. Division of prizes among co-authors is responsibility of winners. Taxes are the responsibility of winners. Void where prohibited. All Federal, State and Local laws and regulations apply.

9. INDEMNITY AND RELEASE

Signature on entry form constitutes that the song submitted is an original work and releases The Podunk Bluegrass Music Festival Songwriting Contest, its judges, sponsors, Hebron Lions Club, and The Podunk Bluegrass Music Festival from all liability. Entry also constitutes permission to use winner's name and likeness for future advertising and publicity without compensation. By entering, entrants agree that they have no right to bring, and covenant not to bring any claim, action, or proceeding of any kind or nature whatsoever against PBMF, or any other sponsoring organization or judge in connection with this competition.

BLUEGRASS GENRE GUIDELINES

Bluegrass is a style of acoustic music that originated in the 1940s when Bill Monroe, Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs combined elements of country/western, gospel and blues music with the British, Irish, and Scottish music of their Appalachian mountain heritage. It is played most commonly on the mandolin, fiddle, five-string banjo, six-string guitar, and upright bass, but the resonator guitar ("Dobro"), harmonica, and electric bass are also found in bluegrass. Percussion is not generally used, with the insistent rhythm being a result of the interplay of the stringed instruments. Bluegrass music is often called "that high lonesome sound" but it includes a wide range of lively instrumentals, sweet ballads in three-part harmony, soulful a cappella gospel quartets and up-tempo love songs.

Some examples of the bluegrass genre include the music of the Stanley Brothers, Reno & Smiley, Jim & Jesse, and Jimmy Martin, the Osborne Brothers, the Dillards, the Seldom Scene, the New Grass Revival, and Hot Rize. Today the bluegrass genre is popular worldwide, and its stars include Ricky Skaggs, Alison Krauss & Union Station, the Del McCoury Band, Laurie Lewis, the Lonesome River Band, Blue Highway, and the Nashville Bluegrass Band.
